LOCAL HERO OF THE YEAR

The award is designed to identify and reward everyday people doing extraordinary things in our Buller community. We want to honour someone who is making a positive difference to the Buller District. Our local hero may be involved in business leadership, voluntary work, community and environmental groups, education, working with disadvantaged or have displayed courage in overcoming personal adversity.

The judges will consider the following when considering the nominations:

- A description of the initiative and leadership demonstrated by the individual
- What has this person done to inspire you to make this nomination
- How does the work/community contribution of the nominee positively impact the Buller community or the cause they are working towards
- Have there been any challenges they have had to overcome
